

MAD LIBS

What's a Mad Lib? They're fun stories with words removed and replaced by blank spaces to make a story interesting, funny and sometimes just a little odd! Fill in the blanks below with a friend or family member and then go back and read your custom story.

_____ 's family is surprising him/her with a trip to _____ (Friend's Name) (Fun vacation spot) to celebrate his/her birthday and they have invited you to join them, but you would have to pay for your _____. This will cost $ _____.
(Something you'll need on vacation) (Dollar amount)
You have _____ before the trip. You don't have enough money (Amount of time) to cover the cost right now. You talk with your family to see if they have any suggestions on ways for you to earn money to cover the cost. They suggest that you _____. If you do this _____ times a week, your family will give (Chore) (Number)
you the money to cover the cost of the item that you need. To earn some extra spending money for your trip, your family suggests that you _____.
(A chore you don't like)
Your family will pay you $ _____ for each time you do this. You choose (Dollar amount) to do this chore _____ times. How much have you earned? $ _____ (Number) (Dollar amount)
It's time for your trip. You are having so much fun with your friend and his/her family. You spend most of your time _____.
(Something you might do on vacation)
You do this _____ times. Each time you do this, it costs you $ _____.
(Number) (Dollar amount)
How much did you have left over? $ _____